Artists

Each year ArtiGras receives an average of 1200 applications from artists around the country for the coveted 300 available spaces. Artists are selected through an intense 3-day process by 5 professional artist jurors and cash prizes worth $20,000 are awarded at the event for first place awards in each category.

Artist Survey Results show that exhibitors consider ArtiGras as one of the best shows in the country for Organization, Layout, Quality & Quantity of Customers and Artist Amenities and the average artist grosses over $3,500 during the two-day event.

“It is so evident that ArtiGras is well planned, well-advertised, and well managed. The volunteers were so accommodating...they really enjoyed being there to help both customers and artists...many of them thanked us for being at the show. The brochures were really helpful...I noticed many customers using them.”

“Fabulous treatment of artists and great turnout. I did an artist demonstration this year and was treated like a “rock star”. I did very well on gross receipts and the crowd was sophisticated, the jurying selection of the show was top notch, the staff was very nice.”

Volunteers

It takes over 800 working more than 10,000 hours to make ArtiGras a success! A committee of 35 individuals works year-round to help the Palm Beach North Chamber of Commerce staff produce the annual event.

Volunteers work throughout the event in areas like Information, Public Gates, Security, Youth Art and ArtiKids Zone, to Merchandise, Volunteer Headquarters, Hospitality and more. Survey results show that 99% of volunteers would return for future years.

“I came in from Birmingham, AL especially for this festival. My daughter had volunteered last year and said what a great experience it was. I loved the festival and appreciated your accepting my sister (dragged her in from Atlanta too) and me to volunteer. It was a fantastic time I got to share with my daughter and my sister. Thanks to you all.”

“It is a very nice community event, and you should be proud of your efforts in bringing people to the northern Palm Beaches!”

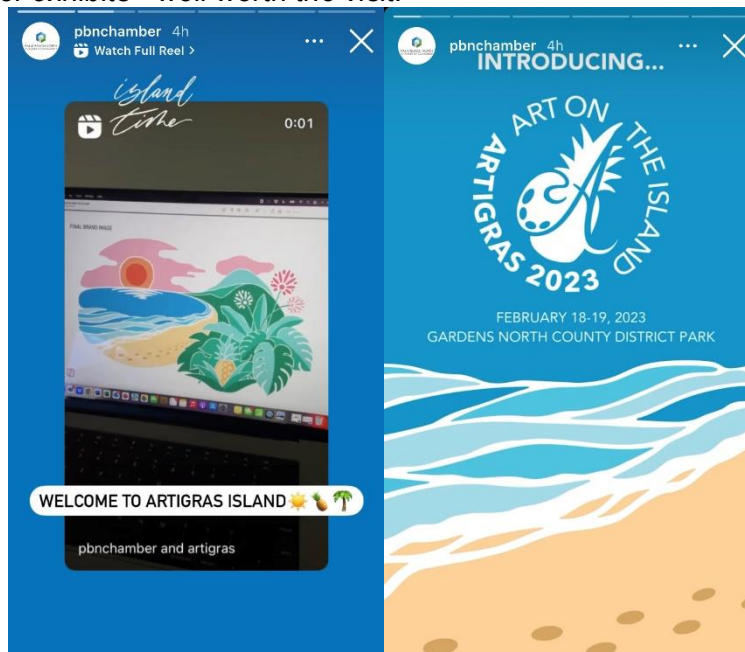

“I had a wonderful, rewarding, educational experience!”

Patrons

Patrons come from throughout the state of Florida to enjoy the festivities of ArtiGras over President’s Day weekend each year. Survey results show that 95% of ArtiGras visitors rate the event as Good or Excellent and 94% will return for future years.

From its humble beginnings at the North Palm Beach Country Club, to its current ranking as one of the premier fine art festivals in the United States, the ArtiGras Fine Arts Festival has stayed true to its purpose – to promote cultural arts in Northern Palm Beach County in a family friendly environment.

As budget cuts increase, school art programs continue to decrease everyday. We know how important these programs are to a child's educational and social development and that's why we created the ArtiGras Foundation to benefit local school art programs and scholarships. We are proud to report that since its beginning, ArtiGras ticket sales and programs have generated over $500,000 to support the arts in Palm Beach County.

Back this Year: The Art of Food!

Culinary Arts Chef Showcase

Nick Lanier, Cocktail Connoisseur
LUCKY SHUCKS

The heart of his career has been invested "behind the pine," where he developed a passion for making unique and memorable cocktails. His resume contains a diverse portfolio of local restaurants and bars allowing him to acquire an eclectic artform in craft cocktail making. As a Palm Beach Gardens native, Lanier enjoys taking extra special care of the locals.

Keith Wallace, Chef
EAU PALM BEACH RESORT & SPA

As a child, Keith learned from his grandmother. She taught him to bake signature creations like sweet potato pie, bread pudding, banana pudding and sweet coconut pound cake. As his passion grew, Keith began to play with unique local flavors like mangos, key limes, guava, grapefruit, papaya and various types of oranges. Chef Wallace's vision is to bring local flavors to creative new signature desserts.

Nick Dellinger, Chef
LUCKY SHUCKS

He started his career as a dishwasher at his family's diner, Porky's. This gave Nick the foundation of hard work, and to use his own words, "rolling up our sleeves and doing the work." His unique background has given him a knack for taking "down home" comfort foods and making them into amazing, high end, elevated cuisine. Chef Nick comes from the old school, hard knock, cook or be cooked mindset, and trust us, he cooks!

Returning this year, we will incorporate the art of food with our ArtiGras Culinary Arts Studio. This area will have a full kitchen set up provided by Kitchen Concepts & More and will showcase the creativity of cooking through live food demonstrations and tastings from local fine-dining chefs and more!

Last Thursday, we celebrated our ArtiGras Kickoff Party and Commemorative Poster reveal presented by HBK CPAs & Consultants. The night was filled with delicious food & beverages, live music, works of art by this year's Emerging Artists and a raffle.

The 2023 poster artist, Leon Ruiz, unveiled the original piece which was auctioned off and purchased by George Gentile. Signed prints of the poster will be available at ArtiGras in the merchandise tent!

Thank you to everyone who attended and celebrated the start of ArtiGras season!
